

GAIOLE IN CHIANTI (Province of Siena) REF. 157

Where the Chianti area opens towards south, there is this century-old estate - embedded in vineyards and olive groves. The farm belonged in former times to a famous monastery, was recently completely restored and offers now its guests the opportunity to spend memorable Tuscan holiday. Further to this comfortably and stylishly furnished barn for 4 people (completely independent from the main house of the owners), there is a an apartment for 4-6 people which shares the pool. The decision how to create your vacation is not easy: Would you like to visit the vineries long the famous Castle-Road or do you prefer a culture trip to Siena or Florence? Maybe a walk through the olive groves or better some lazy hours at the gorgeous pool to enjoy the 360 degree-view over the Tuscan landscape? Decisions, decisions...
